Russian Language and Speech Culture (the course for beginners in English)

- Russian is the native language of 147 million people.
- Another 113 million speak it as a second language.
- In terms of the prevalence of native speakers, Russian is the fifth language in the world (after English, Chinese, Spanish and Arabic).
- It is very difficult to start learning Russian without a language you already know. So this course for beginners will be held with support in English.
- IN 1 MONTH you can REACH THE ELEMENTARY LEVEL OF THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE, first of all, the elementary vocabulary! To complete the course, you must have at least A2 (elementary) level in English (no certificate is required).

Russian literature as the material for studying Russian as a foreign language (the course for beginners in English)

Do you want to master Russian? Our course will help you to do it in the most productive way: using adapted material from classical and modern literature. The great ideas and characters of Pushkin, Gogol, Dostoevsky, Tolstoy, Chekhov are relevant today all over the world. Our lectures, comments, and discussion of the best pages of Russian classics will be a significant step in learning Russian and expanding your cultural horizon.

Russian Culture Opens the Borders (the course for beginners in English)

- Russian culture is a kind of the “bridge” connecting the cultures of the East and West.
- Russian culture has evolved into a unique form as a result of long unrepeatable development.
- The course will acquaint you with Russian culture and its achievements, its close ties with other cultures of Asia.
- Our task is to become acquainted with Russian culture in order to understand what it can give to a modern man.
